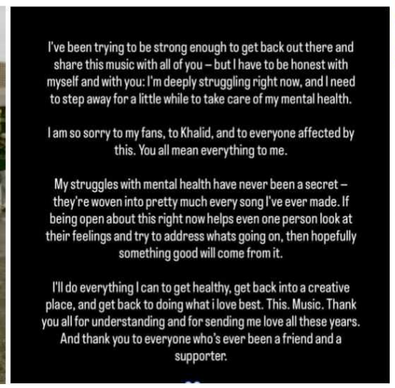
[Trigger Warning: This post discusses mental health]

READ: American singer-songwriter Lauv is stepping away from music due to his struggle with mental health.

“If being open about this right now helps even one person look at their feelings and try to address what’s going on, then hopefully something good will come from it,” his statement reads.

Lauv was scheduled to join Khalid on the North American leg of his tour this June. | 📷: Lauv/Instagram



I've been trying to be strong enough to get back out there and share this music with all of you – but I have to be honest with myself and with you: I'm deeply struggling right now, and I need to step away for a little while to take care of my mental health.
I am so sorry to my fans, to Khalid, and to everyone affected by this. You all mean everything to me.
My struggles with mental health have never been a secret – they're woven into pretty much every song I've ever made. If being open about this right now helps even one person look at their feelings and try to address whats going on, then hopefully something good will come from it.
I'll do everything I can to get healthy, get back into a creative place, and get back to doing what i love best. This. Music. Thank you all for understanding and for sending me love all these years. And thank you to everyone who's ever been a friend and a supporter.

PH FAILS TO GET UNSC NONPERMANENT SEAT

After four rounds of voting, Kyrgyzstan is elected as the non-permanent member of the powerful United Nations Security Council for the Asia-Pacific Group.

Kyrgyzstan was able to secure 142 votes, more than the required two-thirds majority of 121 votes. The Philippines, meanwhile, got 49 votes.

History of voting of the UNGA:
Kyrgyzstan: 105 - 110 - 123 - 142
Philippines: 85 - 81 - 68 - 49

The UNGA earlier filled four of the five non-permanent seats at the UNSC: Austria and Portugal (for the Western European and Others Group); Trinidad and Tobago (for the Latin American and Caribbean Group); and Zimbabwe (for the African Group).

They five new UNSC non-permanent members shall serve on a two-year term beginning on Jan. 1, 2027. | via Dexter Cabalza, Philippine Daily Inquirer

Salus populi suprema lex esto: the welfare of the people should be the supreme law.

That principle is not decorative Latin. It is the moral test of every republic. Laws, rules, procedures, and institutions exist to protect the public from abuse and neglect. They do not exist to become hiding places for wounded political pride.

In moments like this, the question is not whether rules matter. They do. The question is whether rules are being used to keep government accountable to the people, or twisted to keep government from moving at all.

Legal arguments matter. The Constitution matters. Procedure matters. Pero sa labas ng legal debate, may mas simpleng tanong ang taumbayan: bakit hindi gumagana ang Senado?

Karamihan sa mga Pilipino, hindi abogado. Wala kaming oras para araw-araw makipag-debate sa parliamentary rules, quorum doctrines, at constitutional theory habang tuloy-tuloy ang bills, gutom, trapik, baha, utang, ospital na kulang, classroom na siksikan, at presyo ng bilihin na parang araw-araw may sariling hearing.

Kapag ninakaw ang kaisa-isang kalabaw ng isang magsasaka, hindi niya kailangan ng seminar bago kumilos ang Estado. Isa lang ang tanong niya: nasaan ang pangkabuhayan ko?

Ganyan din ang pakiramdam ng taumbayan ngayon. Habang pinapahaba ninyo ang legal acrobatics, pakiramdam namin ay ninanakawan kami: ng oras, ng serbisyo, ng imbestigasyon, ng batas, ng accountability, at ng perang araw-araw na kinukuha sa amin para gumana ang institusyong ito.

Jun 04, 2026 07:12:32

Hindi mura ang Senado. Almost ₱25 million a day ang halaga ng pagpapatakbo nito kung hahatiin ang taunang budget. Hindi iyan pambayad sa drama ng mga makapangyarihan. Binabayaran iyan ng pamilyang patay-sindi ang electric fan para hindi lumobo ang Meralco bill, ng pasyenteng nakapila sa initan ng public hospital, ng estudyanteng nagkakasya sa upuang pang-dalawahan, at ng manggagawang isang medical emergency na lang ay baon na naman sa utang.

Kaya kapag tumigil ang Senado, hindi lang session ang nawawala. Nasasayang ang perang kinuha sa taumbayan para gumawa ng batas, mag-imbestiga ng katiwalian, magbusisi ng budget, maglantad ng abuso, at maghabol ng pananagutan.

The Senate is not ornamental democracy. It is supposed to be one of the working engines of the Republic. It writes laws. It scrutinizes national spending. It checks executive power. It conducts inquiries in aid of legislation. It is where public wrongs are supposed to be dragged into public view.

So no, this is not a small matter. When the Senate is held hostage by people who cannot accept that they lost the numbers, paralysis becomes expensive. Every wasted day is not just politics. It is paid dysfunction. It is taxpayers funding an institution that some politicians want to freeze because their pride cannot survive a vote.

Do not weaponize procedure until it becomes paralysis. Do not stretch constitutional arguments until they become sabotage. Do not pretend that defending a committee chair is the same as defending democracy. The Constitution is a social contract with the people, not a shield for political entitlement.

Maaaring tama ang ilan sa inyo sa parliamentary rules. Some of you may even sound legally right. But you can win a technical argument and still lose the moral authority to lead when you become blind to the daily

Maaaring tama ang ilan sa inyo sa parliamentary rules. Some of you may even sound legally right. But you can win a technical argument and still lose the moral authority to lead when you become blind to the daily struggles of ordinary taxpayers. At that point, you no longer sound like guardians of an institution. You sound like strangers to the very people you swore to serve.

The people have urgent business.

The poor cannot postpone hunger while senators debate hurt feelings. Workers cannot delay rent while politicians nurse entitlement. Commuters trapped in broken transit systems cannot recover lost hours because a chamber decided to turn public office into a possession dispute.

We need real hearings on corruption. We need serious budget scrutiny. We need laws for livable wages, cheaper power, better transport, stronger hospitals, working classrooms, and answers for flood control projects that drown the same communities every year despite billions in public funding.

Kung gusto nilang ipaglaban ang upuan, mag-demanda sila. Dalhin nila sa Korte Suprema. Kung may mali, hayaang magpasya ang tamang tribunal.

But until a binding order is issued, the Senate must do its job.

The country is already paying too much for food, rent, transport, medicine, electricity, and corruption. We refuse to pay almost ₱25 million a day just to fund political tantrums.

The politicians can fight over their titles in court.

But the Filipino people should no longer be forced to wait outside, holding the bill.

'Yun ang problema kasi kung nandito sila sa session hall, dito sana kami magdedebate. Mahirap makipagdebate sa Facebook, kasi sa halip na pumasok siya (Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano)... hindi naman siya pumapasok. So paano kami magdedebate kung nasa Facebook siya, kami naman nasa plenaryo?
Ang tamang venue para pagdebatehan, pati 'yung pag-eelect, kung meron silang issues, dito sa plenaryo, hindi sa Facebook.

SA SIGALOT SA SENADO
I never imagined in my entire life [...] my entire political life that such a thing could happen, especially to the august— it's no longer august now, but to the august body of the Upper House, the Senate of the Philippines. It's a very, very sad situation to have to watch.
They have to regulate themselves. And they haven't been doing much of a good job right now.

Selective Memory?

Malinaw ang ebidensya na nagpapasubali sa mga naging pahayag nina Senador Pia Cayetano, Alan Peter Cayetano, at Loren Legarda ukol sa mga patakaran ng Senado.

Sa opisyal na talaan ng Senate Session noong Mayo 5, 2015, tahasang pinayagan ng Senado na magpatuloy ang pagpupulong at kilalanin ang pagkakaroon ng quorum sa kabila ng presensya ng labindalawang (12) senador lamang.

Ang pangyayaring ito ay isang direktang patunay na taliwas ang kanilang mga naging claims sa mismong kasaysayan, talaan, at umiiral na sistema ng Senado.

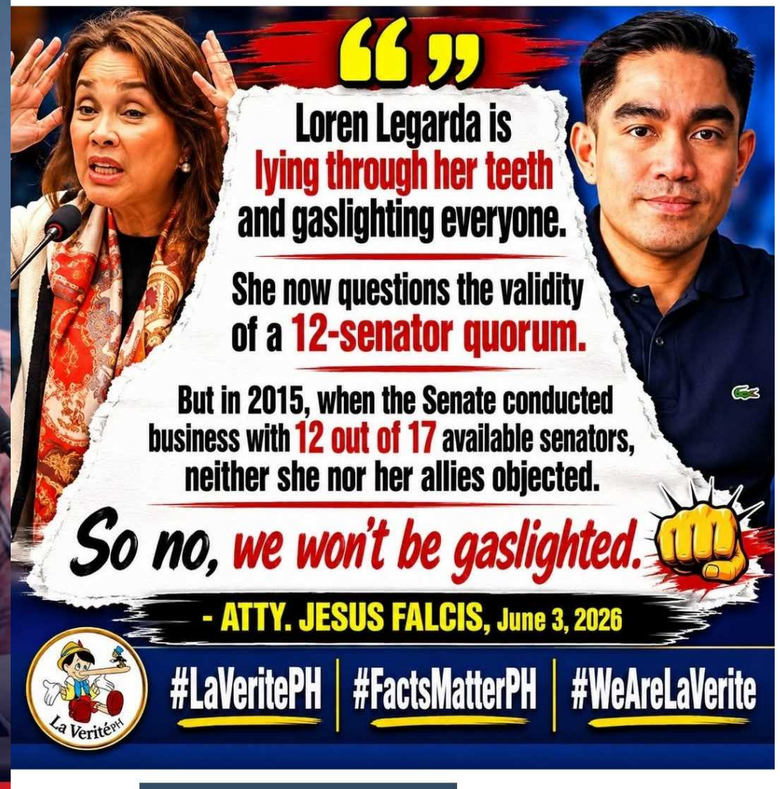
Gaslighting or Selective Memory? The Quorum Quest... more



Loren Legarda is lying through her teeth and gaslighting everyone.
She now questions the validity of a 12-senator quorum.
But in 2015, when the Senate conducted business with 12 out of 17 available senators, neither she nor her allies objected.
So no, we won't be gaslighted.

Tama ba ang quorum of 12?

Yes — legally defensible, basta maayos ang Senate record.

Ang tanong ngayon: kung detained si Jinggoy Estrada at missing or in hiding si Bato dela Rosa, valid ba na 12 senators ang nag-session, nag-declare ng quorum, at nag-elect ng bagong committee positions?

My answer: yes, may matibay na legal basis. Pero dapat precise tayo. Hindi ibig sabihin nito na “12 is always quorum.” Hindi rin ibig sabihin na burado na sina Jinggoy at Bato bilang senators. Ang tamang legal framing ay mas narrow pero mas matibay:

They may still be senators in legal status, but they may be excluded from the effective quorum base if the Senate cannot legally or practically compel their attendance.

Normal rule: 24 senators, quorum is 13.

Pero kung ang effective base ay 22 dahil isang senator is under lawful detention and another is beyond the Senate’s coercive reach, majority of 22 is 12.

Ayan ang buong punto. Hindi magic. Hindi coup. Hindi parliamentary witchcraft. Math lang, pero may jurisprudence.

Una, si Jinggoy.

A detained senator does not automatically lose his office. In People v. Jalosjos, the Supreme Court said of a detained legislator: “He remains a congressman unless expelled by Congress or, otherwise, disqualified.”

June 04, 2026 09:29

So yes, senator pa rin siya. Hindi automatic vacant ang seat. Hindi nabubura ang boto ng taumbayan dahil lang nakakulong ang isang elected official.

Pero dito nagkakamali ang iba: holding the office is different from being available for quorum.

A senator may retain the title, mandate, and seat, but if he is under lawful custody, the Senate cannot simply force him to attend like an ordinary absentee. Custody is a legal restraint. Hindi siya simpleng absent dahil tinamad, nagtampo, o ayaw makita ang kaaway sa session hall.

In Trillanes v. Pimentel, the Supreme Court was also clear: “Election… does not obliterate a criminal charge.” Meaning, public office does not magically erase detention. Nanalo ka, yes. Pero hindi ibig sabihin may automatic VIP pass palabas ng kulungan.

So for Jinggoy, the argument is strong: senator pa rin siya, but for purposes of actual attendance and quorum, he may be treated as legally unavailable if the Senate cannot compel him to appear without court or custodial permission.

Now, si Bato.

Mas fact-sensitive ito. If Bato is merely absent, counted siya. If he is just boycotting, counted siya. If he is reachable but refuses to attend, counted siya. Hindi puwedeng magtago sa attendance tapos gagawing weapon ang sariling empty chair.

Pero kung ang factual record shows that he is missing, in hiding, cannot be located, cannot be served, and cannot realistically be compelled by the Senate to attend, then he falls under the Avelino logic: a member beyond the coercive power of the chamber.

June 04, 2026 09:29

les, the chamber can order the Sergeant-at-Arms to arrest absent members to force a quorum. Pero paano kung nagtatago at hindi makita? The Senate cannot hold its breath forever waiting for a fugitive. If the coercive power of the Senate practically fails, the Avelino logic kicks in.

Avelino v. Cuenco matters because the Supreme Court did not blindly worship the number 24. The Court accepted a quorum theory where one senator was outside the country and beyond the Senate’s coercive reach. Later cases summarized the principle clearly: what matters is not just the total membership on paper, but whether absent members can still be compelled to attend.

Kkung ang senator na nasa ibang bansa nga puwedeng hindi isama sa effective quorum base dahil hindi maabot ng coercive power ng Senado, paano pa ang nakakulong under lawful custody at ang nagtatago sa warrant?

Hindi dahil hindi na sila senators. The point is legal reach.

Quorum is not just a headcount of titles. It is also about whether the Senate can actually compel attendance. Hindi ito attendance sheet sa classroom na basta may pangalan sa listahan, counted forever kahit nasa kabilang isla, nasa kulungan, o nagtatago sa warrant.

Kaya kung si Jinggoy is lawfully detained and si Bato is beyond coercive reach, the effective quorum base can be treated as 22.

Majority of 22 is 12. Therefore, the 12 senators who attended had a legally defensible basis to declare quorum and conduct Senate business.

Quick Summary of Senator Status and Quorum

June 04, 2026 09:29

ed (Jinggoy): Still a Senator. Counted in Quorum Base? No. Custody is a legal restraint; no VIP pass

* Lawfully Detained (Jinggoy): Still a Senator. Counted in Quorum Base? No. Custody is a legal restraint; no VIP pass out of jail just for roll call.

* In Hiding / Missing (Bato): Still a Senator. Counted in Quorum Base? No (if unreachable). Beyond the practical coercive reach of the Senate Sergeant-at-Arms.

* Boycotting / Tampo (Others): Still a Senator. Counted in Quorum Base? Yes. Political absence is not legal impossibility. Group project rules apply.

Doon tayo sa mga nag-boycott or hindi pumasok.

Iba sila. If they are free, reachable, and capable of attending, counted pa rin sila sa base. Political absence is not legal impossibility. Hindi puwedeng ayaw mong pumasok, tapos sasabihin mong invalid ang session dahil wala ka.

Very group project energy: hindi um-attend sa meeting, tapos galit na may nag-submit ng output.

So tama ba na nag-elect sila ng committee positions?

If the quorum was validly declared, yes. The Senate can conduct business. Committee reorganization is Senate business. If 12 was a valid quorum based on an effective base of 22, then the election of committee positions is legally defensible.

But here is the important caveat: committee reorganization is easier to defend than a permanent change in the Senate Presidency. Article VI, Section 16(1) of the Constitution is highly specific: electing a Senate President requires a majority vote of all its respective Members (which means 13, regardless of who is in jail). But for regular business and committee shuffles? A simple quorum based on an effective base is legally defensible. The safer position is this:

June 04, 2026 09:29

The 12 had a strong legal basis to convene, declare quorum, conduct business, and elect or reorganize committee positions, if the Senate Journal properly reflects why Jinggoy and Bato were excluded from the effective quorum base.

That is the legally precise version.

Hindi natin sinasabing hindi na senador sina Jinggoy at Bato. Hindi rin natin sinasabing puwedeng burahin sa bilang ang kahit sinong absent.

Ang sinasabi natin: kapag ang isang senator ay under lawful detention, missing, or beyond the Senate's practical coercive reach, he should not be used as a mathematical padlock against the entire institution.

Sa madaling sabi: senador pa rin siya, pero hindi siya puwedeng gawing kandado ng Senado.

And this is where the Constitution itself becomes the biggest anti-drama queen in the room.

Article VI, Section 16(5) says neither House of Congress, during session, may adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other House. Translation for non-lawyers: the Constitution does not like prolonged legislative paralysis. It does not imagine the Senate as a body that can simply stop functioning for days because a bloc wants to weaponize absence.

To be precise, this provision is about adjournment, not every single missed session. Pero the constitutional principle is clear: Congress is built for continuity, not hostage-taking.

The Senate is not a sari-sari store that can just put up a "sarado muna, may tampuhan" sign while the public keeps paying rent, electricity, and salaries. May bills na kailangang investigations na kailangang ituloy. May committee work na hindi dapat matulog. May corruption issues na hindi dapat ibaon sa attendance drama.

June 04, 2026 09:29

So yes: if the record shows Jinggoy was under lawful detention and Bato was beyond coercive reach, the quorum of 12 was legally defensible.

And if the others simply refused to attend?

Problema nila iyon. The law does not reward absence as sabotage.

Twelve showed up. The math can hold. The jurisprudence supports the theory. The Constitution itself rejects prolonged institutional paralysis.

Hindi dapat gawing hostage ang Senado ng mga taong nawawala kapag trabaho na, pero biglang present kapag kapangyarihan na ang binibilang.

MAMBABATAS

Hindi napigilan maging emosyonal ni Palawan Rep. Jose Alvarez dahil sa mga pinagsasabi umano ni Cavite Rep. Kiko Barzaga sa mga mambabatas.

Sa kanyang talumpati, sinabi ni Alvarez na kinakailangan na umanong mapaalis sa pwesto si Barzaga dahil sa paulit-ulit nito umanong pagpapakita ng hindi magandang ugali sa mga miyembro ng House of Representatives.

“I rise today para po suportahan yung findings ng Ethics committee na tuluyan ng paalisin yan si meow-meow dito sa Kamara,” ani Alvarez.

“Gusto ba ninyo na manatili yang animal na yan dito. Animal in the sense na pusa daw siya. Hindi yung animal na animal sya,” dagdag pa niya.

Binasa rin ni Alvarez ang umano'y pagmumura ni Barzaga sa mga mambabatas.

“Nung nilapitan ako dyan minsan binigyan ko ng konting payo ngunit mahirap talagang payuhan ang animal. Hayop eh, pusa. Pano mo payuhan yung pusa. And lahat tayo dito tinatawag na pusang ina,” aniya.

Dahil sa pagiging emosyonal ni Alvarez ay sinuspinde ang sesyon.

MAMBABATAS

Hindi napigilan maging emosyonal ni Palawan Rep. Jose Alvarez dahil sa mga pinagsasabi umano ni Cavite Rep. Kiko Barzaga sa mga mambabatas.

Sa kanyang talumpati, sinabi ni Alvarez na kinakailangan na umanong mapaalis sa pwesto si Barzaga dahil sa paulit-ulit nito umanong pagpapakita ng hindi magandang ugali sa mga miyembro ng House of Representatives.

“I rise today para po suportahan yung findings ng Ethics committee na tuluyan ng paalisin yan si meow-meow dito sa Kamara,” ani Alvarez.

“Gusto ba ninyo na manatili yang animal na yan dito. Animal in the sense na pusa daw siya. Hindi yung animal na animal sya,” dagdag pa niya.

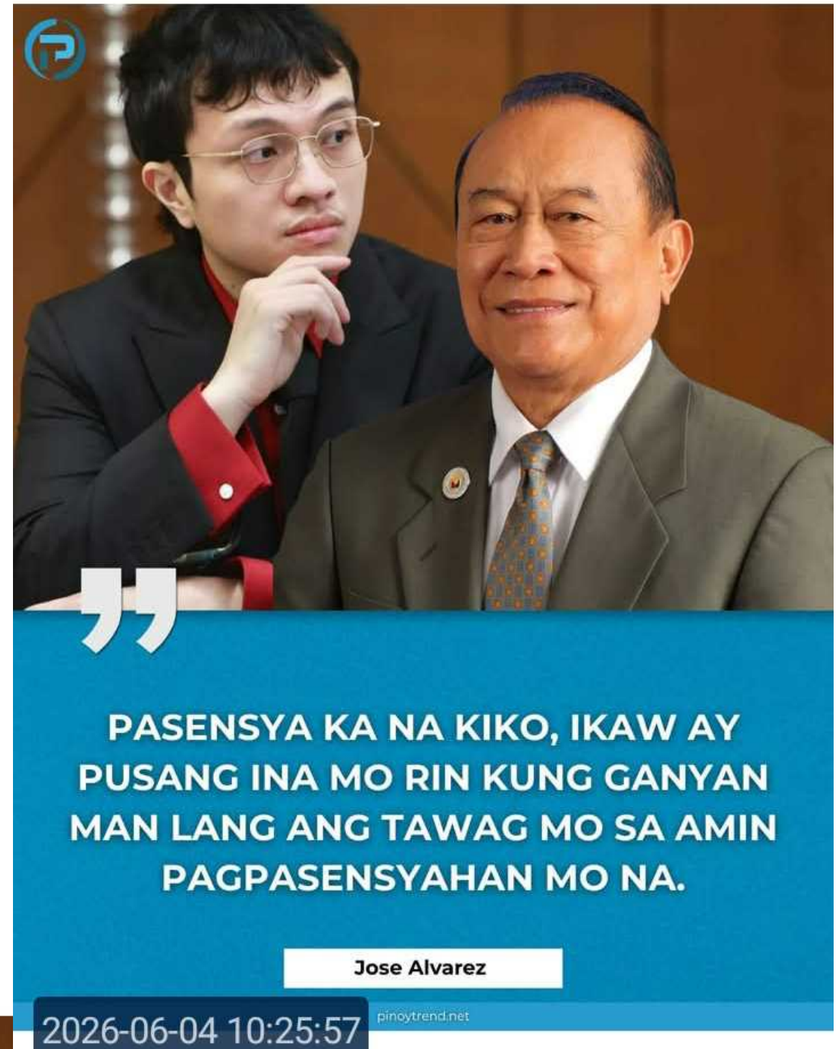
Dahil sa pagiging emosyonal ni Alvarez ay sinuspinde ang sesyon.



PASENSYA KA NA KIKO, IKAW AY PUSANG INA MO RIN KUNG GANYAN MAN LANG ANG TAWAG MO SA AMIN PAGPASENSYAHAN MO NA.

'SI SECRETARY JONVIC REMULLA, HINAHARANG AKO'

Senator Pia Cayetano said that Interior Secretary Jonvic Remulla prevented her from entering the Senate on Thursday.

"Nagulat na lang ako nakita ko dun si Secretary Jonvic Remulla, hinaharang ako. I never thought the day would come that someone would prevent me from entering the Senate, this is my office," she said.

Huwag pong lituhin ang mga tao. The right office to determine whether or not the quorum was attained yesterday is the Supreme Court. Let's be cautious enough to ventilate issues since we are not concern of the senators. They certainly know their mandates; let's be more concern of our country.

STATEMENT OF SENATOR VICENTE SOTTO III ON THE CAYETANO BLOC FLOOD CONTROL PROBE
The Filipino people deserve senators who show up for work, not for drama.
The Senate’s mandate is to uphold the Constitution, check abuses, and pass laws for the people’s welfare. We urge our colleagues to abandon this bogus “hearing,” respect the rules, the quorum, and the duly constituted leadership of the Senate.
They have refused to attend legitimately called sessions. Now, they are grandstanding in an unofficial and unauthorized gathering.
What an insult to the institution and to the Filipino people who pay for every minute of this circus with their hard-earned taxes.

Even worse, they are reportedly threatening Senate employees with cases if they are not obeyed. These are civil servants who are simply trying to do their jobs in accordance with the law and the duly constituted leadership of the Senate.

As pointed out by Acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian earlier today, there are no official Senate hearings scheduled for this morning, and that any so-called "hearing" convened by Senators Alan Peter Cayetano, Pia Cayetano, Padilla, and Marcoleta has no basis in the rules, calendar, or authority of the Senate.

What we are seeing is a naked grab for power dressed up as "inquiry" and "oversight." It is nothing more than a self-serving spectacle meant to cling to positions they have already lost in a valid and constitutional reorganization of the Senate.

‘OH ANO NANGYARI, SHERWIN?’

LOOK: Senator Pia Cayetano went live on Facebook on Thursday, where she criticized directives issued by Senate President Pro Tempore Sherwin Gatchalian.

“Oh ano nangyari, Sherwin? Ako ‘yung hinaharang,” she said, referring to the presence of Interior Secretary Jonvic Remulla.

“Hindi ka Senate Pro Tempore, Sherwin, si Loren Legarda,” she added.

‘HINDI PA PO TAYO NAGRE-RESIGN SA ATING POSITION’

Senator Loren Legarda attended the Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing on the flood control scandal on Thursday, where she affirmed Senator Pia Cayetano's statement that she remains the Senate President Pro Tempore and has not resigned from her position.

“I am not AI. I’m alive and I’m present. Ako po’y nandito bilang Senate President Pro Tempore at miyembro ng 24 man and women ng senado… Kasi may nagtatanong kung nasaan. So hindi nga AI, buhay na buhay, sa awa po ng Diyos, at hindi nagre-resign,” she said during the hearing.

Legarda added that she is willing to relinquish her post if a majority of senators decide to elect someone else.

“At simple lang po, kung merong 13 na boto na iba po ang iboboto, I would be more than willing to yield my position… Just to make it clear… nandito po ako para ipakita na nandito po tayo at hindi pa po tayo nagre-resign sa ating position,” she added.

BREAKING: NBI Director Melvin Matibag has revealed that the NBI received information that former Congressman Mike Defensor allegedly bribed each of the “18 ex-Marines” P5 million to provide testimony regarding the flood control anomalies.

Matibag said the testimony came from an individual with a direct relationship to one of the 18 supposed ex-Marines.

“Pinangalanan si dating Congressman Mike Defensor na siya yung nag-offer ng halaga, nong P5 million, para maging testigo nga at lumabas, mag-press conference,” Matibag said.

He added that the NBI has already issued a subpoena to Defensor to shed light on the allegations. | via MJ Salcedo, INQUIRER.net

PRAYING THE ROSARY MAY SUPPORT MENTAL HEALTH AND EMOTIONAL WELL-BEING

The Holy Rosary is not only a cherished Catholic devotion but may also offer meaningful benefits for mental and emotional well-being. Recent research suggests that praying the Rosary can have effects similar to those associated with meditation, helping individuals find peace, comfort, and stability amid life's challenges.

A multinational study published in the Journal of Religion and Health, titled "Is the Rosary Still Relevant? Exploring its Impact on Mental Health and Well-Being," examined the experiences of 361 practicing Catholics from Italy, Poland, and Spain. The researchers found positive associations between praying the Rosary and lower levels of depression, greater empathy, and fewer religious struggles.

According to the study, participants who regularly prayed the Rosary reported benefits that extended beyond spiritual practice. The repetitive and contemplative nature of the prayer appeared to foster calmness, encourage reflection, and provide a healthy way of coping with stress and emotional difficulties.

Many believers have long experienced the Rosary as a source of strength in times of hardship. One participant shared, “Praying the rosary saved my life... it gave me the strength to survive these difficult moments.” Such testimonies reflect how this devotion can become a powerful companion during seasons of suffering, uncertainty, and grief.

While the Rosary remains above all a prayer that draws us closer to Jesus through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, its practice may also contribute to emotional resilience, inner peace, and a renewed sense of hope. In a world often marked by anxiety and unrest, taking time each day to pray the Rosary can be a simple yet profound way to nurture both the soul and the mind.

Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us. 🙏💭

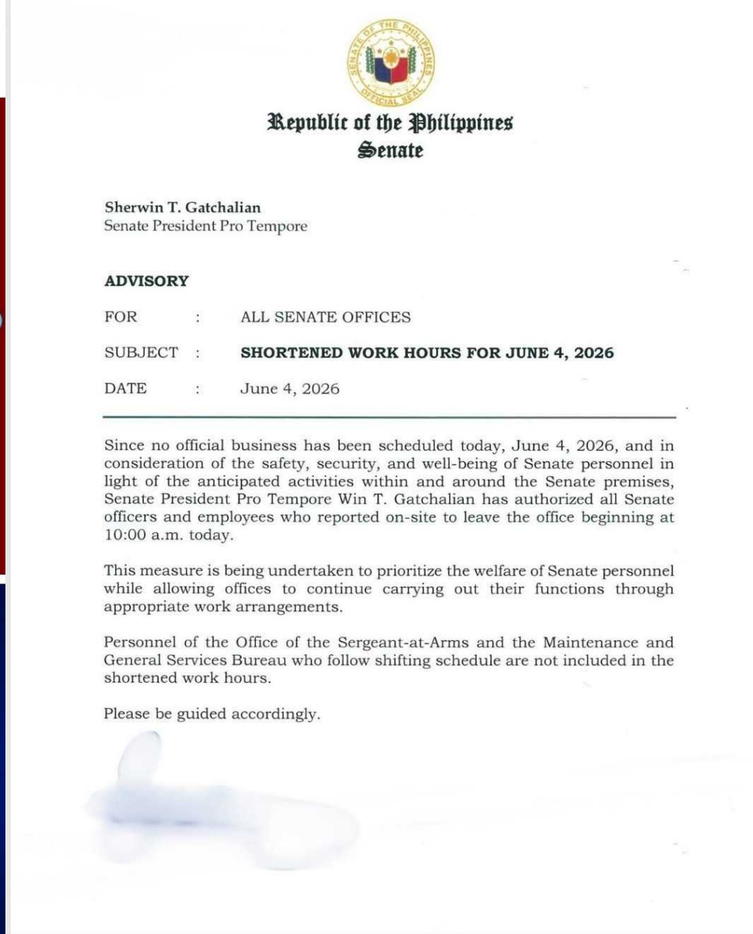
UPDATE: In a new memo, Acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian has allowed Senate personnel who reported onsite to leave the office at 10 a.m. on Thursday, June 4, 2026 “to prioritize the welfare of Senate personnel.”



Republic of the Philippines
Senate

Sherwin T. Gatchalian
Senate President Pro Tempore

ADVISORY

FOR : ALL SENATE OFFICES

SUBJECT : SHORTENED WORK HOURS FOR JUNE 4, 2026

DATE : June 4, 2026

Since no official business has been scheduled today, June 4, 2026, and in consideration of the safety, security, and well-being of Senate personnel in light of the anticipated activities within and around the Senate premises, Senate President Pro Tempore Win T. Gatchalian has authorized all Senate officers and employees who reported on-site to leave the office beginning at 10:00 a.m. today.

This measure is being undertaken to prioritize the welfare of Senate personnel while allowing offices to continue carrying out their functions through appropriate work arrangements.

Personnel of the Office of the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Maintenance and General Services Bureau who follow shifting schedule are not included in the shortened work hours.

Please be guided accordingly.

READ: Senate Media released a statement on Thursday condemning the allegations by Sen. Rodante Marcoleta that “many members of the mainstream media are nothing more than paid hacks.”

Tey said that "Such remark of the senator during Thursday’s Senate blue ribbon proceedings was not only irresponsible, but a reckless attack on an institution widely acknowledged as essential to any functioning democracy."

STATEMENT OF THE SENATE MEDIA ON SEN. RODANTE MARCOLETA’S ALLEGATIONS
We, the members of the Senate media, condemn in the strongest possible sense the sweeping claim by Sen. Rodante Marcoleta that many members of the mainstream media are nothing more than paid hacks.
Such remark of the senator during Thursday’s Senate blue ribbon proceedings was not only irresponsible, but a reckless attack on an institution widely acknowledged as essential to any functioning democracy.
Marcoleta’s statement unfairly maligned media workers who risk intimidation, harassment and even their lives to inform the public and hold the powerful accountable.
At a time when disinformation and political polarization continue to undermine public discourse, government officials should exercise greater restraint and responsibility in their pronouncements.
Marcoleta’s accusations against the press, if not supported by evidence, erode public trust in legitimate journalism and contribute to a climate of hostility against media practitioners simply doing their jobs.
The role of journalists is not to serve politicians, political parties or competing factions in the country's endless political battles.

should exercise greater restraint and responsibility in their pronouncements.

Marcoleta's accusations against the press, if not supported by evidence, erode public trust in legitimate journalism and contribute to a climate of hostility against media practitioners simply doing their jobs.

The role of journalists is not to serve politicians, political parties or competing factions in the country's endless political battles.

panaynews.net Panay News panaynewsdotnet

The Fourth Estate exists to serve the public interest. Its duty is to pursue facts, verify information, question those in power and report developments without fear or favor.

That mission becomes even more critical during periods of intense political conflict.

Journalists should never be dragged into the rivalries, feuds, or power struggles of political figures. The media is not a weapon to be wielded by one camp against another, nor should it be treated as collateral damage in political warfare.

Attempts to paint the press as partisan simply because it reports uncomfortable facts are both unfair and dangerous. A free press can only perform its constitutional role when it is allowed to operate independently- free from pressure, threats, intimidation, or political coercion from any side.

Whether the pressure comes from those in government, those seeking power or those fighting to retain it, journalists must remain free to report the truth wherever the facts may lead. Criticism of media coverage is fair and even healthy in a democratic society. But there is a profound difference between constructive criticism and the wholesale vilification of an entire profession.

Public officials, such as Marcoleta, who make serious allegations against journalists have a responsibility to present evidence instead of just relying on inflammatory rhetoric that undermines democratic institutions.

Again, the press is not the enemy of any political faction. It is not an extension of any political machinery. Its allegiance must remain solely to the truth and to the public it serves.

Journalists deserve neither blind praise nor baseless condemnation, but they do deserve the freedom to report without being branded, bullied or sacrificed in the political battles of others.

Statement of House Speaker Bojie Dy on Senator Win Gatchalian's assumption of the role of Acting Senate President

"On behalf of the House of Representatives, we extend our warmest congratulations to the Acting Senate President, Sherwin Gatchalian, on your assumption of this important responsibility.

At a time when our nation looks to its institutions for stability and leadership, a fully functioning Senate is essential to advancing legislation, exercising oversight, and upholding democratic governance. We are confident that under your stewardship, the Senate will continue to discharge its constitutional duties with integrity, independence, and dedication to the public interest.

We wish Acting Senate President Gatchalian every success as he leads the chamber in addressing the challenges and opportunities before our country." #

WORLD'S HIGHEST-IQ MAN PUBLICLY PROFESSSES: "JESUS CHRIST IS GOD"

South Korean scientist YoungHoon Kim, recognized for holding one of the highest recorded IQ scores in the world at 276, has drawn global attention after openly proclaiming his Christian faith. In a post shared on X on June 17, 2025, Kim wrote: "As the world's highest IQ record holder, I believe that Jesus Christ is God, the way, the truth, and the life." The statement quickly gained widespread attention online, receiving millions of views and hundreds of thousands of interactions within days.

Known for his affiliations with organizations such as Guinness World Records, Mensa, and the Giga Society, Kim is not only a scientist but also a graduate of Christian Theology from Yonsei University. He has described theology as "the ultimate discipline" and has spoken positively about how his theological studies shaped his understanding of truth and reality.

Kim has expressed a desire to use his public platform to encourage faith in God, saying that he hopes to lead many people closer to Him. He has also famously stated, "Christ is my logic," emphasizing that faith and reason are not opposed but can work together in the search for truth.

2026-06-04 13:23:54

His views echo the long-standing Christian belief that the existence of God can be approached through both faith and reason. Earlier in the year, Kim also shared his conviction that human consciousness may transcend mere biological processes, suggesting that reality may involve dimensions beyond what is currently understood by science.

Beyond his faith, Kim is the founder and CEO of Neuro Story, an AI-driven brain health initiative, and serves in leadership roles within organizations dedicated to the safe and ethical development of emerging technologies. Through both science and faith, he continues to advocate for the pursuit of truth, wisdom, and the greater good.

SEN. TULFO, SANGKOT UMANO SA HUMAN TRAFFICKING AT NAMIMILI NG MGA BABAE - 18 EX MARINES
Ibinahagi ni Atty. Levi Baligod at mga miyembro ng tinaguriang 18 Ex-Marines na mayroon umanong isang Senador ang sangkot sa human trafficking na ang mga biktima ay mga babae.
Ayon kay Baligod, nagpapakuha umano ang nasabing opisyal ng limang babae at pagpipilian ang mga ito.
"Minsan magpapakuha ng limang babae, pagpipilian niya. Yung hindi niya nagustuhan bibigyani niya ng tip then maiiwan 'yung napili niya na [na babae]," ani Baligod.
Ilang mga miyembro naman ng dating Ex-Marines ang kinumpirma ito at pinangalanan si Senador Erwin Tulfo na isa sa mga 'VIP.'
"Si Senator Erwin Tulfo, tapos maya-maya dumating din po yung dalawang babae, inakyat po namin doon," ani Bernard Gumban.

'HINDI KO PO MAGAGAWA ANG BINTANG'

Senator Robin Padilla took to social media to deny allegations that he instigated the pushing incident involving Interior and Local Government Secretary Jonvic Remulla on Thursday.

The statement came after Remulla claimed that Padilla pushed him while he was trying to leave the Senate.

"Mataas ang respeto ko po sa kalihim ng DILG, Sir Jonvic Remulla [...] Hindi ko po magagawa ang bintang na ako po ay nag umpisa ng kaguluhan sa lobby ng senado," he wrote in his post.

Padilla added that, on the contrary, he was attempting to calm the situation during the encounter. (Facebook/Robin Padilla)

Matatandaan na noon ay binawi ng 18 marites na kasama si Leila De Lima sa nakatanggap ng Maleta. Dahil si Cong De Lima ay hindi pa nakaupo noon sa Kongreso at kasalukuyang nasa kulungan dahil sa gawagawang kaso ng mga Duterte.

Pero sa Hearing na ginawa ngayon ay muli nila g isinama si De Lima.

So alam n'yo na huh. Hindi mapagkakatiwalaan ang bago nilang script. Masunog sana kayo sa Impyerno.

POSSIBLE ERROR IN INCLUDING DE LIMA'S NAME?

WATCH: Rosebert Waupan, one of the former Marines testifying in the Senate probe on the alleged flood control scandal, admitted there may have been an error in including the name of Rep. Leila de Lima on a list of officials allegedly linked to kickbacks.

Senator Rodante Marcoleta questioned Waupan on why De Lima was included in the list, noting that she was not yet a member of the House of Representatives during the period being discussed.

Waupan acknowledged the possibility of a mistake, saying he may have confused De Lima's position at the time.

The 1949 case Avelino v. Cuenco clarified ... more

Avelino v. Cuenco (G.R. No. L-2821, March 4, 1949)
The landmark doctrine that continues to shape quorum and deadlock issues in the Philippine Senate.
THE CASE
A power struggle in the Senate led to a walkout. Only 12 senators remained physically present and proceeded to act. Their actions were questioned in court.
THE QUESTION
Can 12 senators validly constitute a quorum of the 24-member Senate and transact business?
THE SUPREME COURT RULING
1. THE GENERAL RULE:
Quorum is a majority of all members of the Senate.
13 OF 24
Since the Senate has 24 members, the majority is 13.
NORMALLY, YOU NEED 13 SENATORS FOR QUORUM.
2. VOTING MAJORITY (SEPARATE FROM QUORUM)
Quorum (to start session): 13
Majority vote (to pass a measure): majority of those present, unless the Constitution requires otherwise.
3. TIE-BREAKER RULE
In case of a tie, the presiding officer (Senate President or Presiding Officer) may break the tie.
THE IMPORTANT EXCEPTION (THE 1949 TWIST)
The Court ruled that if any senators are:
ABSENT OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY
BEYOND THE COERCIVE JURISDICTION OF THE SENATE
CANNOT BE COMPELLED TO ATTEND
Then, they are effectively NOT COUNTED FOR QUORUM PURPOSES.
IN THE 1949 CASE:
One senator (Confesor) was abroad and not under the Senate's jurisdiction.
24 MEMBERS
1 ABROAD (not counted)
23 EFFECTIVE MEMBERS
Majority of 23 is 12.
THEREFORE, 12 SENATORS CAN CONSTITUTE A QUORUM
UNDER THAT REDUCED MEMBERSHIP LOGIC.
THE REAL DOCTRINE IN ONE LINE
Quorum is a majority of all members who are within the chamber's effective jurisdiction—not necessarily the full theoretical membership.
COMMON MISUNDERSTANDING
"12 out of 24 is enough quorum."
WRONG
THE CORRECT INTERPRETATION
"12 may be quorum ONLY if the effective membership is reduced due to absence
WHY THIS MATTERS
Ensures the Senate can function during extraordinary circumstances.
Prevents abuse of absences or walkouts.

The 18 Marines: The Duterte Camp's Last Grenade

P805 billion. Delivered in cash. In suitcases. By land, sea and air. By 18 low ranking former enlisted men. Directly to the President and the former Speaker. Personally.

Senator Lacson already did the math. P805 billion in physical cash would require over 13,000 large suitcases. Think about that for a second.

Here is what nobody is saying out loud. In any real corruption scheme, former low ranking soldiers are not the ones moving billions directly to heads of state. That is not how it works. The people who move that kind of money are trusted fixers, lawyers, businessmen. Not Marines.

So why are they here? Why now?

Because the Duterte camp is cornered and their allies are falling one by one. Start with the top. Rodrigo Duterte himself is currently detained at the ICC facing crimes against humanity charges over the drug war killings. His own daughter Sara is facing an impeachment trial, with the full Senate acting as her judge, over allegations that include misuse of confidential funds and a very public threat she made against the lives of Marcos, his wife, and Speaker Romualdez. Bato dela Rosa, one of the chief architects of the drug war, is so desperate to avoid the ICC that armed Marines were brought into the Senate premises just to keep him from being served an arrest warrant. That alone should tell you everything about where this camp is right now.

Then their allies. Revilla got arrested in January over a ghost flood control project. Jinggoy got his warrant just this week, with P573 million in alleged kickbacks and this being his third plunder case in 25 years. Marcoleta, who chaired the very committee investigating the flood control scandal, was caught being suspiciously protective of the Discaya contractors to the point that Lacson had to call him out publicly asking "why are you so protective of the Discayas?" It later came out that his wife sat on the boards of two insurance firms that issued bonds for Discaya owned contractors on projects later

This is not a whistleblower testimony. This is a political grenade designed to explode in headlines regardless of whether it holds up in court. Someone lawyered them up, organized them, and is funding their appearance. The real question is not whether they are telling the truth. The real question is who is behind them and what they were promised.

Be critical. Not everything that sounds dramatic is evidence. And in Philippine politics, the loudest bombs are usually the emptiest ones.

AKBAYAN WELCOMES CAYETANO OUSTER, THE WORST SENATE PRESIDENT IN PH HISTORY

Akbayan Party welcomes the ouster of Senator Alan Peter Cayetano as Senate President. We consign him to the dustbin of history as one of the shortest-serving, yet worst, Senate Presidents in the country's history.

Despite his extremely short tenure, Cayetano presided over a descent into complete chaos that further eroded the Senate's remaining credibility that will take years to undo.

We call on the new Senate leadership to restore order, integrity, and public trust without delay. This must begin with a full, transparent inquiry into the sequence of events that led to the recent turmoil, including the coddling of international fugitive and accused mass murderer Senator Bato dela Rosa and the May 13 Senate shooting incident, where his escape was enabled with the assistance of Senator Robin Padilla and others.

We also urge the Senate to convene without delay the impeachment court and proceed with the trial of twice-impeached Vice President Sara Duterte, in line with its constitutional duty to uphold justice without fear or favor.

Lastly, we call on the public to remain vigilant against any renewed attempt to undermine, distort, or capture the Senate institution once more.

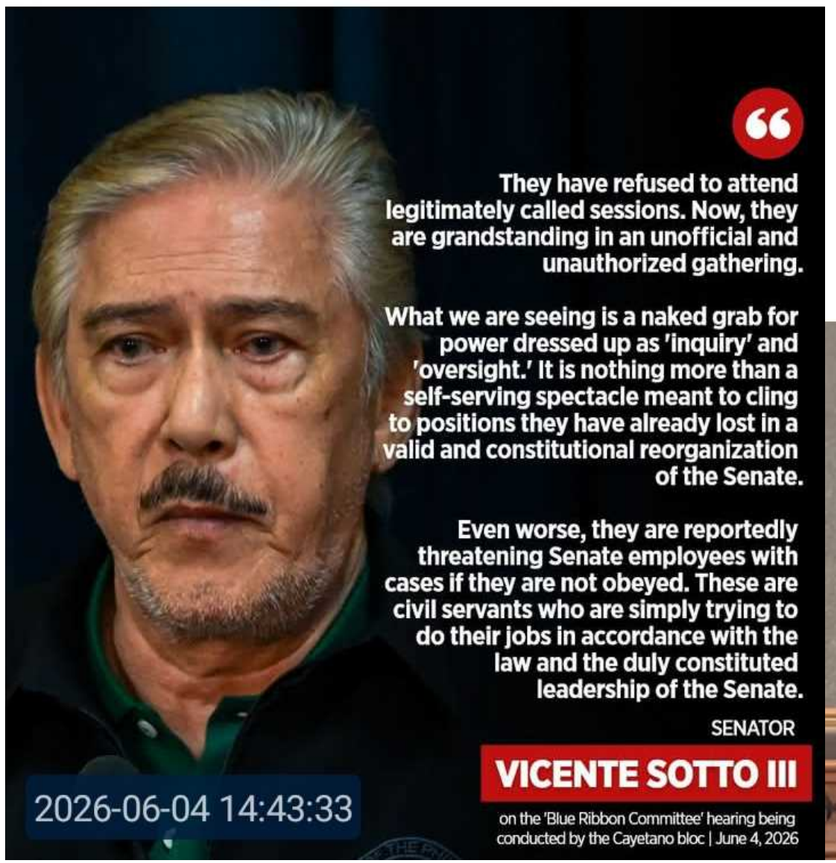
"Unofficial" at "unauthorized" kung ilarawan ni Senador Vicente Sotto III ang pagdinig ng mga senador mula sa Cayetano bloc ngayong Huwebes, Hunyo 4.

Dagdag niya, ang ginawa ng mga senador mula sa kabilang kampo ay para lamang igiit ang kanilang hawak sa kapangyarihan.



They have refused to attend legitimately called sessions. Now, they are grandstanding in an unofficial and unauthorized gathering.
What we are seeing is a naked grab for power dressed up as 'inquiry' and 'oversight.' It is nothing more than a self-serving spectacle meant to cling to positions they have already lost in a valid and constitutional reorganization of the Senate.
Even worse, they are reportedly threatening Senate employees with cases if they are not obeyed. These are civil servants who are simply trying to do their jobs in accordance with the law and the duly constituted leadership of the Senate.

Saludo sa Senate media for pushing back!

ON SEN. RODANTE MARCOLETA'S ALLEGATIONS

We, the members of the Senate media, condemn in the strongest possible sense the sweeping claim by Sen. Rodante Marcoleta that many members of the mainstream media are nothing more than paid hacks.

Such remark of the senator during Thursday's Senate blue ribbon proceedings was not only irresponsible, but a reckless attack on an institution widely acknowledged as essential to any functioning democracy.

Marcoleta's statement unfairly maligned media workers who risk intimidation, harassment and even their lives to inform the public and hold the powerful accountable.

At a time when disinformation and political polarization continue to undermine public discourse, government officials should exercise greater restraint and responsibility in their pronouncements.

Marcoleta's accusations against the press, if not supported by evidence, erode public trust in legitimate journalism and contribute to a climate of hostility against media practitioners simply doing their jobs.

The role of journalists is not to serve politicians, political parties or competing factions in the country's endless political battles.

The Fourth Estate exists to serve the public interest. Its duty is to pursue facts, verify information, question those in power and report developments without fear or favor. That mission becomes even more critical during periods of intense political conflict.

Journalists should never be dragged into the rivalries, feuds, or power struggles of political figures. The media is not a weapon to be wielded by one camp against another, nor should it be treated as collateral damage in political warfare. Attempts to paint the press as partisan simply because it reports uncomfortable facts are both unfair and dangerous.

A free press can only perform its constitutional role when it is allowed to operate independently- free from pressure, threats, intimidation, or political coercion from any side. Whether the pressure comes from those in government, those seeking power or those fighting to retain it, journalists must remain free to report the truth wherever the facts may lead.

Criticism of media coverage is fair and even healthy in a democratic society. But there is a profound difference between constructive criticism and the wholesale vilification of an entire profession. Public officials, such as Marcoleta, who make serious allegations against journalists have a responsibility to present evidence instead of just relying on inflammatory rhetoric that undermines democratic institutions.

Again, the press is not the enemy of any political faction. It is not an extension of any political machinery. Its allegiance must remain solely to the truth and to the public it serves.

Journalists deserve neither blind praise nor baseless condemnation, but they do deserve the freedom to report without being branded, bullied or sacrificed in the political battles

Ang naganap na Blue Ribbon hearing ngayon ay hindi Opisyal. Walang BRC staff ang mag rirecord sa hearing at dahil d'yan hindi s'ya lalabas sa Opisyal na talaan ng Senado.

Ito ay isang Presscon para manira ng mga tao. Malinaw pa sa Sikat ng Araw ang ginagawa nina Marcoleta at ang Vlogger na si Cayetano. Kung magpapatawag naman sila ng ibang testigo kailangangan nilang maglabas ng subpoena. Dahil ito nga ay presscon hindi nila magagawa at hindi kinikilala ng Senado.

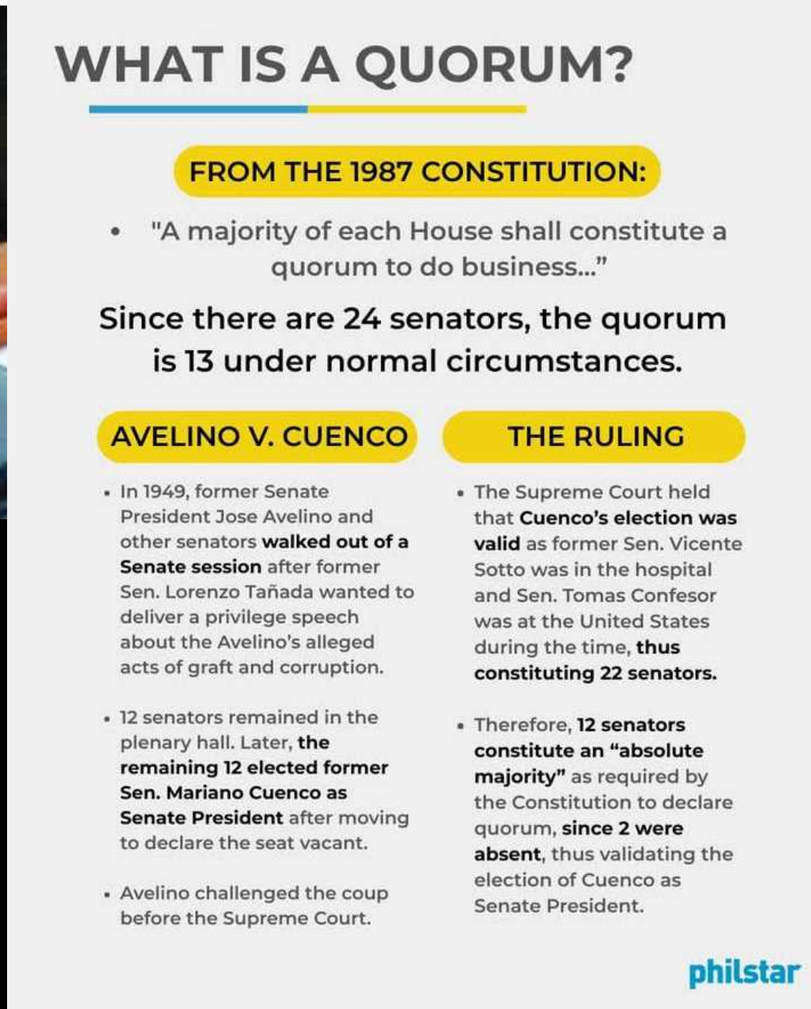
HOW DOES A SENATE QUORUM WORK?... more



WHAT IS A QUORUM?
FROM THE 1987 CONSTITUTION:
• "A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business..."
Since there are 24 senators, the quorum is 13 under normal circumstances.
AVELINO V. CUENCO
• In 1949, former Senate President Jose Avelino and other senators walked out of a Senate session after former Sen. Lorenzo Tañada wanted to deliver a privilege speech about the Avelino's alleged acts of graft and corruption.
• 12 senators remained in the plenary hall. Later, the remaining 12 elected former Sen. Mariano Cuenco as Senate President after moving to declare the seat vacant.
• Avelino challenged the coup before the Supreme Court.
THE RULING
• The Supreme Court held that Cuenco's election was valid as former Sen. Vicente Sotto was in the hospital and Sen. Tomas Confesor was at the United States during the time, thus constituting 22 senators.
• Therefore, 12 senators constitute an "absolute majority" as required by the Constitution to declare quorum, since 2 were absent, thus validating the election of Cuenco as Senate President.

HOW DOES A SENATE QUORUM WORK?

Conflict broils in the Senate as the leadership shifts between Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano and Senate President Pro Tempore Sherwin Gatchalian, who was named Acting Senate President on Wednesday.

Allies of Cayetano claim that a quorum of 13 must exist to effect any change to the Senate leadership, while the new Senate majority cites a Supreme Court ruling saying that the quorum may change depending on the number of senators.

How do lawmakers reach a quorum to decide on business?

Check comments for the story.

Estrada, who was then halfway through his second term as senator, was again indicted for plunder before the Sandiganbayan. He was also charged with 11 counts of graft. The senator was accused of receiving P183.79 million as kickbacks from businesswoman Janet Lim-Napoles for allocating his PDAF or pork barrel to fake NGOs supposedly owned by the latter.
RESOLUTION
• In January 2024, the Sandiganbayan acquitted Estrada of plunder but found him guilty of one count of direct bribery and two counts of indirect bribery. In August 2024, the anti-graft court granted Estrada’s motion for reconsideration and reversed his conviction for direct and indirect bribery.
• The Sandiganbayan has yet to rule on the 11 counts of graft charges against Estrada.

CAYETANO BLOC BLUE RIBBON HEARING SKIPS MENTION OF LEGARDA, VILLAR DESPITE AFFIDAVIT CLAIMS

The "Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing" conducted by Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano's bloc and chaired by Sen. Rodante Marcoleta did not make any mention of Sen. Loren Legarda and Sen. Mark Villar, despite their inclusion in an affidavit submitted by 18 former Marines.

On Page 15, Paragraph 43 of the affidavit, witnesses alleged that individuals delivered two medium-sized suitcases to Legarda in 2024 at No. 40 Cambridge Street, North Forbes Park.

The same document also alleged that individuals and former Ako Bicol Party-list Rep. Zaldy Co, delivered seven medium-sized suitcases to Villar in 2022 at his residence in Portofino South, Biella Street, Daang Hari, Las Piñas.

The claims were cited in the affidavit but were not discussed during the Cayetano bloc's hearing proceedings.

and Sen. Mark Villar, despite their inclusion in an affidavit submitted by 18 former Marines.

On Page 15, Paragraph 43 of the affidavit, witnesses alleged that individuals delivered two medium-sized suitcases to Legarda in 2024 at No. 40 Cambridge Street, North Forbes Park.

The same document also alleged that individuals and former Ako Bicol Party-list Rep. Zaldy Co, delivered seven medium-sized suitcases to Villar in 2022 at his residence in Portofino South, Biella Street, Daang Hari, Las Piñas.

The claims were cited in the affidavit but were not discussed during the Cayetano bloc's hearing proceedings.

Isiniwalat ng ilang ex-Marines sa Senado na nakipagkita umano si dating Speaker Martin Romualdez at ex-senator Antonio Trillanes sa mga imbestigador ng International Criminal Court simula Disyembre 2023.

Ayon sa isang witness na dati umanong staff ni Zaldy Co, isang grupo ng mga dating sundalo ang nagbibigay ng security kay Chantal Daniels na kasapi ng ICC. Aniya, nakipagkita umano si Trillanes sa ICC sa isang hotel sa Makati.

Sinabi naman ng isang witness na nagpapalit umano siya ng 2 maleta na may lamang P50 milyon-P60 milyon kada isa sa dolyar para umano ibigay sa ICC.

FACEBOOK NI MARCOLETA, NA-HACK?

Senator Imee Marcos said that the Facebook account of Senator Rodante Marcoleta was allegedly hacked, preventing him from streaming their hearing on Thursday.

“Na-hack po ‘yung website ni chairman Marcoleta... May taong nag dru-drums, ‘yun na lang ang lumalabas nakakapagtaka,” she said.

Nung sabi ni Marcoleta na ang media ay bayaran, there were low-key "boos" from the media. Reporters should turn those boos into investigative reports on Mrs. Marcoleta being a director of an insurance firm involved in alleged ghost flood control projects. Do it.

‘ATE, PART OF ME WISHES MAY TRESE SILA KAHAPON’

Senator Alan Peter Cayetano shared a conversation he had with his sister Pia Cayetano about the Senate events on Wednesday.

“I told my sister kanina, sabi ko, ‘Ate, part of me wishes may trese sila kahapon para tapos na,’” he said in a press conference today.

He said he wanted to visit his mother and spend quality time with his family.

“Mahirap na everyday ganito ‘yung buhay. So sana kung nag-trese sila wala na akong ipaglalaban kundi ‘yung katotohanan na lang pero hindi ko na responsibility ‘yun ‘diba,” he added. (Screenshots/Alan Peter Cayetano)

SP CAYETANO PRESS CONFERENCE

Nagdaos ng press conference si Senate Pres. Alan Peter Cayetano matapos ang isinagawang hearing ng Blue Ribbon Committee, sa ilalim ng pamumuno ni Sen. Pia Cayetano, ngayong Huwebes, June 4.

LIVE: youtube.com/live/PRFoaAoEbxU

• Cayetano: Ang Senado na kino-control ng Malacañang ay hindi tunay na Senado
• Cayetano: The Constitution, Senate rules says hindi ka puwedeng palitan kung hindi 13; Wala silang 13, wala silang quorum; Even assuming may quorum, 13 para tanggalin ang Senate President, Senate President Pro Tempore; You cannot declare all seats vacant with 12
• Cayetano: Sabi nila, kailangan impartial 'yung trial. May nakita na ba kayong partiality sa'min? Hindi ko amo si VP Sara. Kabigan ko siya, pero hindi kami lagi nagkakasundo sa pulitika
• Cayetano sa pagdalo ni Sen. Escudero sa Senate session noong June 3: Makita ko 'yung kapwa senador na umiiyak, na may kaso sila, na [illegible] pinipilit silang sumunod, mabigat sa'kin 'yun

mabigat sa'kin 'yun
• Cayetano: You may disagree with me, you might not like me, but you know in your heart I'm telling you the truth
• Cayetano sa pagkakaroon ng dalawang bloc sa Senado: Sila ang dapat pumunta sa Korte Suprema, pero hindi nila gagawin 'yun dahil alam nilang mali sila
• Rep. Jose Alvarez, itinanggi ang akusasyon ng 18 "ex-marines" na tumanggap umano siya ng nakamaletang pera mula kay Zaldy Co
• Cayetano sa 'di pagdalo ng majority sa Senate sessions: Nag-walk out sila (last week), ayaw nila na makaboto 'yung 13. They used a parliamentary tool... We also used a parliamentary tool na walang quorum.
• Cayetano sa Blue Ribbon hearing sa June 8: I will assert the powers of the Senate President
• Cayetano sa mga Tulfo: Sana humarap siya; 'Yung 18 "ex-marines," harapin niya sa susunod na hearing
• Cayetano: Unfair to say na magulo 'yung time ni Cayetano, kayo 'yung nanggugulo eh

SEN. ALAN PETER CAYETANO: “KUNG PUWEDE LANG BUMABA AKO TODAY… GUSTO KO NANG BUMABA TODAY AS SENATE PRESIDENT”

Nanindigan si Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano sa kanyang posisyon kaugnay ng isinasagawang pagdinig hinggil sa umano’y flood control scam ngayong araw, June 4, 2026.

Ayon kay Cayetano, “Sino ang susundin n’yo, ‘yung peke na acting Senate President, o ‘yung sinasabi ng ating konstitusyon na Senate President?"

Nagbigay rin siya ng mensahe sa Malacañang, “So, Malacañang ‘yun lang advise ko sa inyo. Hintayin n’yo na maka-13, tawagin n’yo ‘yung Special Session. Puwede siguro tayong magpahiram ng isa para maka-13 na sila?”

'ALAM NAMIN NA GUSTO N'YO KAMING PALITAN'

PANOORIN: Alam daw ng grupo ni Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano na gusto silang palitan bilang mayorya at liderato ng Senado pero kailangan munang makabuo ng "Solid Bloc 12" ng 13 miyembro para makabuo ng quorum at tuluyan silang mapalitan.

Iminungkahi pa ni Cayetano na kumuha ng isa pang senador ang Malacañang nang sa gayon ay mabuo na ang 13 na kailangan ng bagong mayorya na siyang dadalo sa "special session" na gustong isagawa ng Palasyo.

BACK UP CLAIMS OR APOLOGIZE

The Presidential Task Force on Media Security (PTFOMS) urged Sen. Rodante Marcoleta to present evidence or apologize after he claimed during a Cayetano-led Senate hearing that many members of the media are "bayaran."

The agency warned that such allegations could endanger journalists and undermine press freedom.

"These sweeping statements threaten media credibility and expose them to potential harm. Journalists have a duty to report accurately and impartially, and it is critical that public officials respect their role as watchdogs of accountability and truth," part of the statement read.

"Senator Marcoleta, who has previously championed accountability, should adhere to these ideals by either backing his claims with solid evidence or withdrawing his comments and apologizing to the journalists he has wrongfully accused," it added.

On Sen. Rodante Marcoleta's Claims Against Media Workers

The Presidential Task Force on Media Security (PTFOMS) expresses concern over Senator Rodante Marcoleta's claim that members of the media, particularly those covering the Philippine Senate, are "bayaran" or paid hacks. This assertion is not only unfounded but poses a significant threat to the security and safety of journalists who perform essential roles in our democracy.

During a Senate meeting on June 4, Senator Marcoleta remarked, "Kayo pong mga participants sa media, na karamihan po sa inyo ay bayaran, sasabihin ko sa inyo ito, mayroon po bang nagsalita sa kanila?" referring to the other members of the Senate.

These sweeping statements threaten media credibility and expose them to potential harm. Journalists have a duty to report accurately and impartially, and it is critical that public officials respect their role as watchdogs of accountability and truth.

Senator Marcoleta, who has previously championed accountability, should adhere to these ideals by either backing his claims with solid evidence or withdrawing his comments and apologizing to the journalists he has wrongfully accused.

Casting vague aspersions against the media doesn't foster constructive dialogue. It threatens the very foundations of democratic processes by attempting to sway public opinion against those tasked with holding those in power to account.

PTFOMS reiterates its call for respect for journalists and emphasizes that criticism of the media, like any public discourse, must be grounded in verifiable facts. Only then can we ensure a safe and thriving environment for press freedom, a cornerstone of our democratic society. #

U.S. President Donald Trump confirmed he swore at Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu during a heated phone call, saying he was 'perturbed' and told Netanyahu to stop attacks on Lebanon. The exchange occurred amid escalating Middle East tensions, with Iran striking Kuwait's international airport with drones, killing one person and injuring over 60. Despite the military confrontations and Trump's frustration with Net...more Disgraced ex-SP Cayetano desperately dragged my name in a bogus BRC hearing without an iota of evidence or even a tiny bit of basis or reason except to pull me into a corruption controversy. He exposed his loathsome behavior by using overstretched innuendos. He is disgusting.

13th-century illustration of Æthelred

Æthelred the Unready (c. 968 – 1016) was King of the English from 978 to 1013 and from 1014 until his death. He came to the throne as a boy after the killing of his half-brother King Edward the Martyr. During his reign, raids by the Vikings escalated to large-scale invasions, and the English paid increasingly large amounts of tribute. In December 1013, King Swein Forkbeard of Denmark conquered England. Æthelred fled to Normandy, but when Swein died in February 1014 he returned and drove out Swein's son Cnut, who returned the following year. English resistance was hampered by the treachery of Æthelred's chief advisor, Eadric Streona, and by distrust between Æthelred and his eldest son, Edmund Ironside. Æthelred died in April 1016 and Edmund became king. He put up stronger resistance than his father, but died in December, and Cnut then became king. Æthelred's reign was nevertheless a period of cultural achievements, and some historians see its first half as moderately successful. (Full article...)

Official Statement On What Constitutes A Legitimate Quorum For The Senate To Conduct Official Business

4 June, 2026

Article VI, Section 16 (2) of 1987 Constitution provides that:

"A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent Members in such manner, and under such penalties, as such House may provide."

As to how quorum is determined, the Supreme Court already decided this issue in the 1949 landmark case of Avelino vs. Cuenco by interpreting a provision with identical wordings in Article VI, Section 10 (2) of the 1935 Constitution, which provided that:

"A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent Members in such manner and under such penalties as such House may provide."

The Supreme Court explained that:

"If the rump session was not a continuation of the morning session, was it validly constituted? In other words, was there the majority required by the Constitution for the transaction of the business of the Senate? Justices Paras, Feria, Pablo and Bengzon say there was, firstly because the minutes say so, secondly, because at the beginning of such session there were at least fourteen senators including Senators Pendatun and Lopez, and thirdly because in view of the absence from the country of Senator Tomas Confesor twelve senators constitute a majority of the Senate of twenty three senators. When the Constitution declares that a majority of "each House" shall constitute a quorum, "the House" does not mean "all" the members. Even a majority of all the members constitute "the House". (Missouri Pac. vs. Kansas, 63 Law ed. [U. S.], p. 239). There is a difference between a majority of "all the members of the House" and a majority of "the House", the latter requiring less number than the first. Therefore an absolute majority (12) of all the members of the Senate less one (23), constitutes constitutional majority of the Senate for the purpose of a quorum. Mr. Justice Pablo believes furthermore that even if the twelve did not constitute a quorum, they could have ordered the arrest of one, at least, of the absent members; if one had been so arrested, there would be no doubt Quorum then, and Senator Cuenco would have been elected just the same inasmuch as there would be eleven for Cuenco, one against and one abstained.

'THE SENATE SESSION OF JUNE 3, 2026 WAS LAWFUL AND VALID'

Jun 04, 2026 18:46:27

INTEGRATED BAR OF THE PHILIPPINES
27TH BOARD OF GOVERNORS
Office of the National Director for Communications

In fine, all the four justices agree that the Court being confronted with the practical situation that of the twenty three senators who may participate in the Senate deliberations in the days immediately after this decision, twelve senators will support Senator Cuenco and, at most, eleven will side with Senator Avelino, it would be most injudicious to declare the latter as the rightful President of the Senate, that office being essentially one that depends exclusively upon the will of the majority of the senators, the rule of the Senate about tenure of the President of that body being amendable at any time by that majority. And at any session hereafter held with thirteen or more senators, in order to avoid all controversy arising from the divergence of opinion here about quorum and for the benefit of all concerned, the said twelve senators who approved the resolutions herein involved could ratify all their acts and thereby place them beyond the shadow of a doubt."

This Avelino ruling emphasizes a practical approach: the Constitution should be interpreted in a way that allows the Senate to function, and not be blocked by the absence of Members who cannot realistically be made to attend.

In the Senate session of 3 June 2026, the Avelino doctrine is applicable in relation to the determination of quorum despite the physical presence of only twelve (12) Senators. One senator cannot be compelled to attend the session because he is detained in relation to a non-bailable offense. While another senator cannot be found, as in fact, his whereabouts appear to be unknown since May 11, 2026. Therefore, these two (2) senators are considered as beyond the reach of the Senate and cannot be compelled to attend its sessions. As such, they were excluded from the count of Members used to determine quorum. With their exclusion, the total number of Senators considered available was twenty-two (22). Twelve (12) Senators therefore constituted a majority of those available, and thus a valid quorum was constituted for the Senate to conduct official business.

In short, the Senate session of June 3, 2026 was lawful and valid following the Avelino doctrine because a quorum of 12 Senators was constituted. All acts, resolutions and decisions made by the Senate during its session of June 3, 2026 are presumed to be official acts of the Philippine Senate following the presumption of regularity in the discharge of official functions.

IBP: SENATE'S WEDNESDAY PLENARY IS LAWFUL AND VALID

The Integrated Bar of the Philippines released a statement on Thursday affirming the validity of the Senate plenary session on Wednesday, which saw the election of Senate President Pro Tempore and Acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian.

In it statement, the board reiterated the ruling of the Supreme Court in Avelino vs. Cuenco, the jurisprudence which the 12-member Gatchalian bloc used to justify its quorum.

"This Avelino ruling emphasizes a practical approach: the Constitution should be interpreted in a way that allows the Senate to function, and not be blocked by the absence of Members who cannot realistically be made to attend," it said.

Ang daming wow mali ng 18 Marines!

Una, isinama si Rep. Leila de Lima sa listahan, pero inamin mismo ng abogado ng 18 Marines na mistake ang inclusion ni De Lima. Hindi pwedeng sabihing typo lang yan. That goes directly to credibility.

Pangalawa, may allegation laban kay Sen. Tito Sotto. Ang kwento raw ay may delivery sa kanya noong panahon na hindi pa siya senador, at may assistant pa raw na pinagbigyan kahit patay na yung taong yun. Mali na ang timeline, mali pa ang taong ininvolve, at imposible na nangyare ang mga sinasabi. That is a fatal credibility problem.
Pangatlo, kasama rin sa affidavit sina Loren Legarda at Mark Villar sa mga nabanggit na nakatanggap daw ng maleta. Pero bakit hindi binasa yung part ng involvement nila at biglang tahimik.

Tapos, ayon pa sa Philippine Navy, apat sa 18 ay hindi raw naging miyembro ng Navy or Marines, at karamihan ay dishonorably discharged. So paano magiging kapani-paniwala ang mga claims nila.

Kung isang beses lang nagkamali, fine. Baka pwedeng sabihing simple mistake. Pero sa dami ng problema ng testimonya nila, wala nang credibility ang mga pinagsasabi nila.

Kapag ang testimony ay puno ng butas, hindi na siya nagiging kapani-paniwala.

'HE IS DISGUSTING'

LOOK: Sen. Ping Lacson on Thursday slammed the accusations made during the Blue Ribbon Committee hearing led by Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano's bloc, calling it a "bogus BRC hearing."

In response to the image presented in the hearing earlier of him riding a helicopter with Sen. Tito Sotto, Lacson clarified that the picture was taken during his 2022 presidential campaign when he contracted an air service company for P11 million, an expenditure he said was already included in his SOCE.

"The air service company was Asian Aerospace. We contracted them in the 2022 campaign. It's on our Statement of Contribution and Expenditures (SOCE) where we paid P11.031 million for the services," Lacson said in his statement.

[As of 7:20 p.m.] Tuloy pa rin ang programa ng mga taga-suporta ni Vice President Sara Duterte sa labas ng Senado sa Pasay City ngayong Huwebes, June 4.

Ilan sa panawagan nila ay ang magbitiw sa puwesto si Pangulong Ferdinand Marcos Jr., at bawiin ang impeachment complaint laban sa bise presidente.

Ayon pa sa grupo, si Sen. Alan Cayetano lamang ang kinikilala nilang Senate President. | via Lyza Aquino, ABS-CBN News

Official Statement On What Constitutes A Legitimate Quorum For The Senate To Conduct Official Business

INTEGRATED BAR OF THE PHILIPPINES
27TH BOARD OF GOVERNORS
Office of the National Director for Communications

Official Statement On What Constitutes A Legitimate Quorum For The Senate To Conduct Official Business
4 June, 2026

Article VI, Section 16 (2) of 1987 Constitution provides that:

"A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent Members in such manner, and under such penalties, as such House may provide."

As to how quorum is determined, the Supreme Court already decided this issue in the 1949 landmark case of Avelino vs. Cuenco by interpreting a provision with identical wordings in Article VI, Section 10 (2) of the 1935 Constitution, which provided that:

"A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent Members in such manner and under such penalties as such House may provide."

The Supreme Court explained that:

"If the rump session was not a continuation of the morning session, was it validly constituted? In other words, was there the majority required by the Constitution for the transaction of the business of the Senate? Justices Paras, Feria, Pablo and Bengzon say there was, firstly because the minutes say so, secondly, because at the beginning of such session there were at least fourteen senators including Senators Pendatun and Lopez, and thirdly because in view of the absence from the country of Senator Tomas Confesor twelve senators constitute a majority of the Senate of twenty three senators. When the Constitution declares that a majority of "each House" shall constitute a quorum, "the House" does not mean "all" the members. Even a majority of all the members constitute "the House". (Missouri Pac. vs. Kansas, 63 Law ed. (U. S.), p. 239). There is a difference between a majority of "all the members of the House" and a majority of "the House", the latter requiring less number than the first. Therefore an absolute majority (12) of all the members of the Senate less one (23), constitutes constitutional majority of the Senate for the purpose of a quorum. Mr. Justice Pablo believes furthermore that even if the twelve did not constitute a quorum, they could have ordered the arrest of one, at least, of the absent members; if one had been so arrested, there would be no doubt Quorum then, and Senator Cuenco would have been elected just the same inasmuch as there would be eleven for Cuenco, one against and one abstained.

INTEGRATED BAR OF THE PHILIPPINES
27TH BOARD OF GOVERNORS
Office of the National Director for Communications

In fine, all the four justices agree that the Court being confronted with the practical situation that of the twenty three senators who may participate in the Senate deliberations in the days immediately after this decision, twelve senators will support Senator Cuenco and, at most, eleven will side with Senator Avelino, it would be most injudicious to declare the latter as the rightful President of the Senate, that office being essentially one that depends exclusively upon the will of the majority of the senators, the rule of the Senate about tenure of the President of that body being amendable at any time by that majority. And at any session hereafter held with thirteen or more senators, in order to avoid all controversy arising from the divergence of opinion here about quorum and for the benefit of all concerned, the said twelve senators who approved the resolutions herein involved could ratify all their acts and thereby place them beyond the shadow of a doubt."

This Avelino ruling emphasizes a practical approach: the Constitution should be interpreted in a way that allows the Senate to function, and not be blocked by the absence of Members who cannot realistically be made to attend.

In the Senate session of 3 June 2026, the Avelino doctrine is applicable in relation to the determination of quorum despite the physical presence of only twelve (12) Senators. One senator cannot be compelled to attend the session because he is detained in relation to a non-bailable offense. While another senator cannot be found, as in fact, his whereabouts appear to be unknown since May 11, 2026. Therefore, these two (2) senators are considered as beyond the reach of the Senate and cannot be compelled to attend its sessions. As such, they were excluded from the count of Members used to determine quorum. With their exclusion, the total number of Senators considered available was twenty-two (22). Twelve (12) Senators therefore constituted a majority of those available, and thus a valid quorum was constituted for the Senate to conduct official business.

In short, the Senate session of June 3, 2026 was lawful and valid following the Avelino doctrine because a quorum of 12 Senators was constituted. All acts, resolutions and decisions made by the Senate during its session of June 3, 2026 are presumed to be official acts of the Philippine Senate following the presumption of regularity in the discharge of official functions.

Panoorin hanggang dulo ang kasinungalingan ng 18 MARITES.

Halatadong-halatado na ang pabago-bagong script ng "18 Marites." Walang kredibilidad, walang konkretong ebidensya, at gasgas na ang mga paratang. Kung seryoso silang nag-aakusa, bakit parang bawat presscon ay may bagong bersyon ng kuwento?

Sa mga nauna nilang pahayag, ang laging bukambibig ay sobre na hinahatid daw umano sa bahay ni dating Senador Antonio Trillanes IV. Pero ngayon, biglang nagbago ang ihip ng hangin. Mula sa dalawang sobre, naging anim na maleta na raw ang iniabot! Ang tindi ng inflation ng kuwento nila baka sa susunod na presscon, isang buong armored car na ang ideliver?

Dito pa lang sa address na binabanggit nila, huling-huli na ang kulto ng kasinungalingan. Ang ibinibigay nilang lokasyon ay ang address na madaling i-Google sa internet. Pero para sa mga totoong nakakakilala at malapit kay Trillanes, alam kung nasaan talaga ang tunay na Opisina ng Magdalo.

Dito pa lang, sablay at butas-butas na ang naratibo. Halatang-halata na nagpapaligsahan lang sa paggawa ng pekeng kuwento ang 18 Marites para may maipalamong basura sa mga uto-utong DDS na handang lulunin ang kahit anong paninira. Pagod na ang taumbayan sa moro-moro; magpakita kayo ng resibo, hindi puro imahinasyon.

TRILLANES DENIES RECEIVING MONEY FROM ZALDY CO, THREATENS NEW CASES VS EX-MARINES

Former Sen. Antonio "Sonny" Trillanes IV on Thursday "categorically" denied allegations made by the self-identified "18 ex-marines" that he received money from former Ako Bicol Party-list Rep. Zaldy Co, saying the claims are false and unsupported.

In a statement, Trillanes said he never received any money from Co for any purpose, including alleged transmission to the International Criminal Court (ICC).

"Again, I categorically deny na tumanggap ako ng pera mula kay Zaldy Co para ibigay sa ICC or for any other purpose," Trillanes said.

He also cited a denial issued by the ICC, stating that the court did not receive any money from him or any other individual in relation to cases in the Philippines.

"The ICC has also made a statement denying they received money from me or any other person in relation to the cases here in the Philippines," he said.

Trillanes added that he would file new cases against those repeating the allegations.

"Dahil dyan sa inulit na sinabi nila, kakasuhan ko ulit sila," he said.

TINULAK NI SEN. PADILLA

Biglaan lang na tinulak ni Sen. Robin Padilla si DILG Sec. Jonvic Remulla sa labas ng session hall sa Senado ngayon umaga.

Ayon kay Remulla, wala siyang intensyon na harangin sina Sen. Pia Cayetano at Padilla.

Naglalakad lang daw mag isa ang kalihim nang itulak ng Senador.

#LATEST: Senator Rodante Marcoleta skipped portions of Paragraph 43 on Page 15 of the affidavit submitted by 18 former Marines during the "Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing" conducted by Senator Alan Peter Cayetano's bloc on Thursday, June 4.

Based on the affidavit, witnesses alleged that individuals delivered two medium-sized suitcases to Legarda in 2024 at No. 40 Cambridge Street, North Forbes Park.

Witnesses also alleged that individuals and former Ako Bicol Party-list Rep. Zaldy Co delivered seven medium-sized suitcases to Villar in 2022 at his residence in Portofino South, Biella Street, Daang Hari, Las Piñas.

Legarda and Villar are part of the Cayetano-led block.
#IMTNEWS

c. KAMI (Orbillo, Galapon, at iba pa) at si Paul Estrada ay nagdeliver kay Senator Loren Legarda noong 2024 ng dalawang (2) medium-sized na maleta sa No. 40 Cambridge St., North Forbes Park.

d. KAMI (Orbillo, Larroder, at iba pa) at si Mark Ticsay ay nag-transfer sa sasakyan ni dating Senator Bong Revilla ng dalawang (2) medium-sized maleta pagkatapos ng meeting niya kay Zaldy Co sa restaurant na The Taste of L.A., Morato St., Quezon City noong 2024.

e. KAMI (Orbillo, Bulontate, Tube, at iba pa) kasama si Zaldy Co ay nagdeliver kay Senator Tito Sotto ng limang (5) large maleta sa kaniyang opisina sa isang building sa Baclaran.

f. KAMI (Orbillo, Bobares, at iba pa) kasama si John Paul Estrada at Zaldy Co, ay nagdeliver ng pitong (7) medium-sized maleta kay dating Senator at DPWH Secretary Mark Villar noong 2022 sa kaniyang bahay sa Portofino South, Biella Street, Daang Hari, Las Piñas.

44. Nautusan din kami na mag-escort at mag-deliver ng iba't-ibang laki ng maleta sa mga congressmen/women na naaalala namin sa ngayon dahil sila ang napapanood namin minsan sa telebisyon o palagi namin silang nakikita pag nakakausap sila ni Zaldy Co. Nagdeliver kami mismo sa bahay ng ilan, sa HOR, at yong iba ay kinuha nila sa Unit 8 o Unit 9 ng Polo Club Townhouse, Forbes Park. Sila ay ang mga sumusunod:

NEGROS CONGRESSMAN LEDESMA, NAGPANAWAGAN SA MGA LGU NGA IDEKLARAR NGA PERSONA NON GRATA SI CAYETANO

Nagpanawagan si Negros Occidental 1st District Rep. Julio Ledesma IV sa mga lider sa local government units sa iya distrito, nga ideklarar nga persona non grata si Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano sa ila lokalidad.

Ini matapos gintawag niya si Cayetano nga kahuy-anan sa Senado.

Suno sa iya, makaduha na ka beses nga ginpakunubo ni Cayetano ang iya trabaho bilang mamalidha. Ginbalikan niya ang natabo nga tension sang nangin speaker ini sa Kamara.

"Enough is enough," suno kay Ledesma.

Pahayag pa niya, nagkomiter ang senador sang mga akto nga makaguba kag makahalit sa kaayuhan.

Kasunod sini, ginpahayag ni San Carlos City Mayor Renato Gustilo nga suportado niya ang panawagan ni Ledesma kun may basehan.

Samtang, ginpahayag naman ni Negros Association of Chief Executives president Cadiz City Mayor Salvador Escalante nga wala pa nila na-istoryahan ang natabo sa Senado kag kuhaon ang posisyon sang mga alkalde angut sa panawagan sang congressman.

Senator Erwin Tulfo on Thursday asked why the 18 supposed ex-members of the Philippine Marines skipped mentioning Senators Loren Legarda and Mark Villar in their testimony during the Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing on the flood control mess – even they were previously mentioned in the ex-Marines' affidavits.

In Mariz Umali's report on "24 Oras," Tulfo – the chair of the Senate Blue Ribbon panel under the group of Senate Pro Tempore Sherwin Gatchalian – raised the question of why his two colleagues were not mentioned by the ex-Marines during the hearing.

Both Tulfo and Sotto have denied the allegations.

I doubt [na lilipat pa si Loren sa Majority] because ang statement yata na binitawan kanina was in contrast eh... Parang hindi senador. Mali daw yung ginawa namin; nung nireport sa akin nung staff, sabi ko, 'sabi ni Loren yan? Nakakagulat.' Nakakapagtaka kasi she is our natural ally, pero siguro, blood is thicker than water.

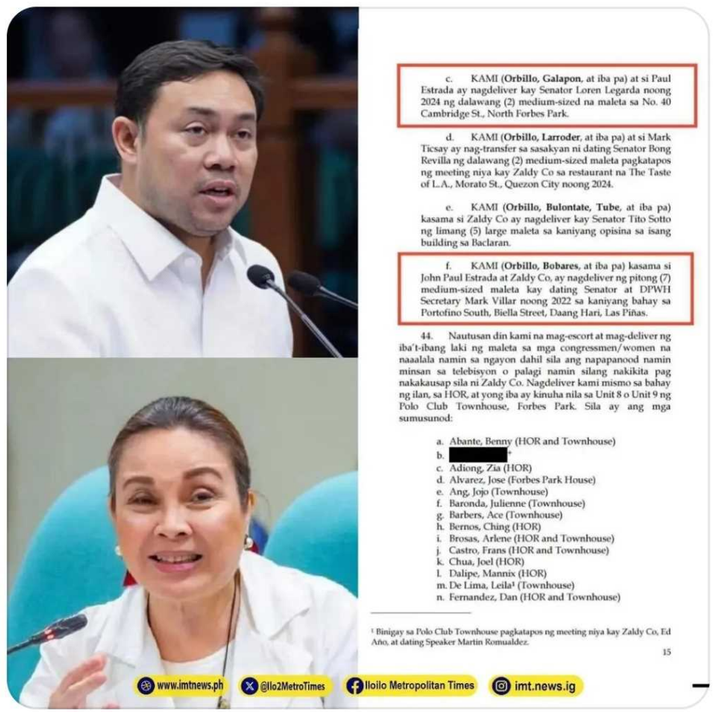
Rodante Marcoleta skipped the portion of paragraph 43 on page 15 of the affidavit submitted by the 18 former marines during the Blue Ribbon Committee Hearing headed by Alan Peter Cayetano and his bloc. In short term, this hearing has no credibility. 🤦



c. KAMI (Orbillo, Galapon, at iba pa) at si Paul Estrada ay nagdeliver kay Senator Loren Legarda noong 2024 ng dalawang (2) medium-sized na maleta sa No. 40 Cambridge St., North Forbes Park.
